

04.300 Institution Presidents

04.301 Role. The President is the chief executive officer of the Institution and reports to the Chancellor.

law and the policies, practices, and procedures of the System;

5. provide for the operation and maintenance of the physical plant, the purchase of supplies and equipment, and the maintenance of appropriate inventories and records of real and personal properties under the jurisdiction of the Institution;

and student governance bodies for the Institution will be sought for all significant policy changes;

12. develop and maintain a current strategic plan with clear indications of the intended improvements of administrative, academic, and student programs, including quantifiable expectations where possible and recommendations for new areas of service and a corresponding allocation of resources and capital expenditures;
13. assume active leadership in developing private fund support for the Institution to obtain adequate endowments and capital contributions to achieve the goals expressed in strategic plans, in accordance with policies and procedures established in these Regents Rules.
14. develop and implement plans and policies to ensure that the Institution remains in compliance with any accreditation requirements appropriate to the Institution or its programs, including, for the health Institutions and those academic Institutions with student health services, the accreditation of clinics and patient-care facilities;
15. develop and recommend to the Chancellor and Board legislative budget requests;
16. establish such degree and other programs as are necessary to achieve the mission of the Institution and fulfill its professional, academic, research, and service goals and submit requests for new degree-granting programs through the Chancellor to the Board for approval and submission to the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board;
17. encourage joint academic programs and other forms of collaboration among the Institutions to enhance quality and maximize use of academic and other resources;
18. within the authority delegated by the Board, appoint, evaluate, promote, transfer, and terminate the Institution in accordance with Institution policies;

19. recommend to the Board through the Chancellor candidates for faculty tenure and promotion;
20. within the authority delegated by the Board, execute contracts, memoranda of agreement, and other legal documents for the Institution that are financially and legally sufficient;
21. support the Chancellor in governmental relations activities with the legislature and other federal, state, and local entities;
22. recommend to the Chancellor proposals, policies, and other matters to be considered by the Board;
23. represent the Institution before the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board as necessary;
24. provide leadership and oversight of effectiveness efforts, ensuring evaluation results are linked to planning;
25. promote diversity within the Institution and support equity and diversity programs; and
26. p